P-T. A. Outline Parade Route

Observations... Explain Purpose Of World Prayer

By UDELL

The ECHO office will be closed Tuesday, February 17, in order that our employees might enjoy the festivities of Mardi Gras.

Tedo Thomas has been appointed a member of the Bay St. Louis Municipal School District to serve from January 1, 1953 to January 1, 1954. Other members of the Board are Rene deMontuzin Jr., W. W. James, Wayne Alliston and John Seafide.

Some preliminary work on the City of Bay St. Louis Housing Project was started Wednesday. A. W. Moore has been appointed inspector for the project. George Horton was awarded the electrical contract; Fred Garner, plumbing; Marsh Plumbing and Heating Company of Brookhaven, plumbing; Brookhaven Roofing and Sheet Metal Works, roofing and sheet metal contract; and Jimmy Vaughan of Bogalusa, plastering. Although some of the contracts have been awarded to out-of-town firms, all labor will be hired locally.

The St. Joseph Carnival Ball Court Committee has requested that spectators at the Ball scheduled for tonight, reserve the parking space in the convent yard for members of the court. This will eliminate congested parking in this area, and will serve as a safety measure. Plenty of parking space is available in the church yard, in front of the church and on the beach front.

We would like to urge the residents and property owners in Bay St. Louis and vicinity to make every effort to "clean up" for the forthcoming Spring Pilgrimage. This annual affair, which will start in Bay St. Louis March 3, will bring many visitors to our City. We would like to greet them with a spick and span and attractive community that they will remember when they return to their homes all over the country. Let's all get together and "clean up" so our visitors will want to come back to this nice town at another date for a longer visit.

We are in receipt of the following telegram from Congressmen William M. Colmer, pertaining to the proposed public school building: "Glad advise Office of Education has acted on Bay St. Louis School Project No. Miss-52-C-205A and $27,725.00 has been reserved for construction of school facilities. Bill Colmer MC."

Urges Action for Conservation

Making arrangements for conservation materials early may be one of the best ways to assure having these materials on hand when needed, advises Fitzhugh Lee, Chairman of the Hancock County PMA Committee.

He points out that this year with PMA community committees visiting each farm, conservation measures have been determined much earlier than usual. This gives farmers an opportunity to plan ahead and to make early arrangements for the conservation materials they may need in carrying out approved Agricultural Conservation Program practices.

Where steps are taken to obtain necessary materials it will mean not only having the material when it is needed but it will be a definite help to dealers and distributors in ordering supplies. This applies particularly to grass and legume seed and to fertilizer, he says. When a distributor or dealer knows ahead of time what is needed, he can get his orders in and have the materials available when the time comes to use them.

The chairman explains that the purchase order covers the ACP part of the cost in obtaining such materials. It can be used to obtain fertilizer, seed, lime, and other conservation materials through regular trade channels. Purchase orders are available at the PMA county office.

Discuss Value Of Education at PTA Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. Ralph Hester, vice-president of the Citizens Council on Education, stressed the fact that education, as an investment, pays off in dollars and cents, at the meeting of the Bay High P-T. A. Tuesday, February 10.

Mrs. Hester, in continuing her discussion on securing adequate laws for children and youth, added that lack of proper education has cost 44 divisions of rejected men for military service.

The speaker stated that educational education is here, the question is how are we going about it. Since the Legislative Study Committee has investigated they have set up resolutions to be presented to the legislative body. One resolution is that school districts be abolished and reorganized because it is estimated that there are about 4,000 too many districts.

They resolved to have a Board of Education set up to select the County Superintendent of Education. It is believed, Mrs. Hester added, that stronger men will be obtained because the Board would take more time to study the qualifications of the applicant than the average voter. Eventually, the State Superintendent of Education would be appointed by a Board of Education, she continued; this type of selection would eliminate much of the policies now involved.

According to the speaker, the Committee intends to propose setting up an Economic Index, establishing the amount each county can afford for school support; the transportation set up would be changed. A salary scale would be provided with respect to the amount of education and years of experience. Mrs. Hester brought out the fact that it will take the efforts of all the P-T. A. units working together to acquire adequate laws for children and youth.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Charles Schultz. A social was enjoyed in the Homecoming department following the meeting.

Live Oak Council Has First Meeting

The first formal organizational meeting for 1953 of the Bay St. Louis neighborhood Council of the Live Oak Council of Girl Scouts was held at the home of Mrs. C. C. McDonald Thursday, February 5, at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. McDonald was elected chairman for 1953; Mrs. Walter Rausch, vice-chairman and Mrs. R. P. Neely, secretary.

Mrs. Rausch reported on a recent meeting in Gulfport on the program for the year. The goals for the Live Oak Council, of which the Bay St. Louis council is a part, are:

1. Continued survey of the troops in the council until all troops have been visited to ascertain how the troops are progressing.
2. Stimulate more "girl-planning" and cultivate mother-daughter relationship.
3. Promote further interest in international Girl Scouts.
4. Special emphasis in council wide programs—such as a Council of Awardees.

The work done by the girls scouts. All the girls are asked to participate in the Carnival. Exhibition of craft by exhibiting their work.

The purpose and obligations of the council were discussed. One of these is to see that every girl who wants to become a scout has the opportunity to do so. This is one of the major problems in Bay St. Louis because there are not enough leaders.

Mrs. McDonald announced that on February 18 at 10:00 a. m. Mrs. Phoebe Jones from Gulfport will meet with the leaders of the troops at the Methodist church. She will discuss problems with the troop leaders and give assistance to them in their troop work. At this meeting she will give instructions in textile painting so that the leaders can teach the members of their troops. This is the first of the regular monthly meetings to be held on the 3rd Thursday of each month. Any one interested in becoming a troop leader is urged to attend the meeting.

Other projects of the year were discussed but no definite plans were made. These included the summer camp, the cookie sale, fund raising campaign and the organization of new troops.

Bay St. Louis Public School officials have been notified. Congressman William M. Colmer and the Federal Security Agency in Washington are now the purpose of constructing the new elementary school building in Bay St. Louis.

This allocation of federal funds has been made because a great number of the people in Bay St. Louis are presently employed on Federal projects along the Coast.

This amount, in addition to $12,000.00 allocated by the State Building Commission for the same purpose, will enable officials to go forward in the construction of an elementary school building that will be located directly across Highway 90 from the present building.

Vanishing Pony To Appear Here

Princess, the vanishing pony, will be in Bay Saint Louis, m. matinee and also at 7:30 evening performance, when she will assist her master, Birch, renowned magician, in entertaining the children of the city, those who are youthful in spirit as well as those who are youthful in age.

Princess is one actress who enjoys her work and who is never temperamental. She takes life philosophically and displays little or no vanity. She likes children, and a crowd of youngsters may always be seen gathered about her as she takes her daily sightseeing tour through the city.

The cooler months of the year are working months for Princess, for it is then that she is called upon to make her appearance at each Birch performance, where she is hoisted in mid-air and then disappears at the snap of her master's fingers.

It might also be said that Princess is the only living actress of note who has never sought publicity. She has never been known to give an interview to the newspapers, and has never voluntarily been quoted or had her photograph taken. She comes from the Dutch West Indies, is 45 years old, and weighs one hundred and fifty pounds.

But Princess is only one small portion of the great Birch array of thrilling illusions and demonstrations of the magic art. Included in the production are many tricks which require a veritable menagerie for presentation. Of these may be mentioned the canary that appears in a burning light bulb, the vanishing ducks, the elusive doves and the ever important magician's rabbit.

Children are always made welcome at the Birch show. The magician likes to work with them, and frequently calls them to the stage.

"I like to play to adults, of course," for they can really appreciate to the fullest the beauty and wonder of my illusions, but it is really much more fun to work with the kiddies. Their naive enthusiasm and the pure enjoyment which they get from the show is something infinitely precious to me."

Not only will Mr. Birch perform the most sensational feats of magic ever presented on a local platform, but he brings a program varied with pleasing novelties. Miss Mabel Sperry, musical artist extraordinary, will play a musical interlude on her specially built Marimba at the evening performance.

Edward Saucier Expires At Home

Edward Pierre Saucier, Jr. 77, died at his home on Highway 90 Monday, February 9, at 8:00 p. m.

Mr. Saucier was the son of the late Ursule Bourgeois and Edward P. Saucier.

Funeral services were held from the Piazza Funeral Home at 3:00 p. m. Thursday, February 12, with religious services at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church. Interment was in Cedar Rest cemetery. Survivors include a son, Clarence Saucier, of Bay St. Louis; a sister, Mrs. James Witt of Gulfport; and two brothers, Sidney T. Saucier, Biloxi, and John T. Saucier, Long Beach; eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Miss Carolyn Morreale spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Duro at their home on Highway 90. —Howard LeTastier was taken to Baptist Hospital by ambulance for treatment, Monday morning.

PASS HIGH GIRLS WIN BASKETBALL TROPHY

In a tournament played in Bay St. Louis on Saturday last girls from the Pass Christian Public High School won a trophy by defeating Bay High and St. Joseph's Academy.

The team, in exceptionally fine form, did their best playing of the season. Revival of interest in basketball is heartening.

TEEN-TOWN CARNIVAL KING AND QUEEN NAMED

On February 13 Pass Christian Teen-Town will present an elaborate formal carnival in the school's gymnasium at which time King Charles Mangum and Queen Joan Benigno will be entertained at court. Royal entertainers are not to be announced in advance and the theme of the carnival will also be a closely guarded secret.

Dukes and maids are sending out call-outs for the dance which starts immediately following the Grand March. Mrs. Charles Atchley and Mrs. Sam Jeffcoat, co-chairmen in charge of planning, urged the members of the court to select teen-agers from schools all along the golf-coast for call-outs in their effort to make Teen-Town a Community Center affair. Call out invitations will embrace St. Stanislaus, Bay High, Gulfport High, Kern School, and other recognized schools in the community. While spectators are welcomed, there will be a reserved section for Call Outs, and only Teen-Towners will participate in the dance.

The small fee of 35c for students and 50c for adults is designated to cover the cost of the orchestra. The ball is non-profit and planned primarily as a recreational and educational program for Teen-Town as well as to keep alive the age-old tradition of courtly carnival procedure. The general public is cordially invited and it is permissible for spectators to wear either evening or street dress.

The girls of Miss Adele Biedenberg's Scout Troop 1 celebrate Valentine's Day with a "Hearts Party" Monday, February 9, in the cafeteria of Pass High School. Each scout invites a guest. Two new scouts who will be admitted to the troop on Feb. 23, were honor guests at the party. The new scouts are Barbara Kalif and Janice Noto.

Attending the affair were Mollie Barksdale, Barbara Allen, Janice Noto, Barbara Kalif, Emilie Weston, Noel Jeffcoat, Elaine Noto, Janet French, Lelia Bourdin, Margaret Lynn Wittman, Louden Vigour, Joyce Benz, Nancy Hartley, Lynn Hall, Gladys Cuevas, Kaye DeMetz, Linda French, Judy Gamard, Barbara Duncan, Marie Mullini, Katherine Costell, Elaine Little, Marcia Caldwell.

Regular troop meetings are held on Monday afternoons of each week, however, due to the Mardi Gras holiday, and a Monday school inspection, the meetings will be postponed until Monday afternoon, February 23.

CARNIVAL PARADE FEATURES SCOUTS

A float made possible through the courtesy of Bourdin's Plumbing Establishment will be decorated by girls of Scout Troop 1 in Pass Christian to participate in the local Carnival Parade scheduled for February 14 at 2 p. m. starting from St. Joseph's Parochial school. The scouts plan to wear gay and varied costumes and to throw cellophane wrapped hard candies, rather than favors, to spectators.

MOBILE UNIT FOR CHEST

Students from the seventh Pass Christian Public High school will have chest X-rays on February 27, when the Harrison County mobile unit for early detection of T. B. will be in this locality. This safety measure is lauded by the schools for early discovery of infection may mean saving a life and often means shorter treatment before the disease is cured or arrested.

HOLIDAYS FOR CARNIVAL SEASON ANNOUNCED

Monday, February 16 and Tuesday, February 17 will be holidays for the Pass Christian Public Elementary and High schools, according to announcement made by Supt. of Schools Norman Hall. These holidays are customary in order that students may take part in local, New Orleans and Mobile festivals. The Bay St. Louis P.-T. A. sponsored carnival attracts many visitors from this vicinity.

MARCH OF DIMES FUNDS STILL COMING IN

Mr. E. A. Lang, chairman of the local polio fund campaign said today in interview that he is not yet ready to announce the amount of money to be contributed by this community, since contributions are still being received through the mails.

Many contributions this season have been slowed down because of illness, but Mr. Lang says he feels confident former contributors will respond generously, as always.

Mr. Herman Finhold, chief of police, with professional clown MacKey of Bay St. Louis collected $158 toward the campaign funds on Saturday working from early morning until mid afternoon. Mr. Finhold using his persuasive voice and a police loud-speaker car attracted attention to the clown's Derby-for-Dime-Droppings. It was a fine cooperation school building stood con-headquarters and appreciated. The D. H. Holmes minstrel talent presented for the benefit of the polio fund brought in well over $300. By early next week Mr. Lang expects to announce total contributions. Speculations are this year's campaign will exceed last year's total by a large margin.

ECHOES FROM THE PASS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atchley were recent visitors in New Orleans making arrangements for Teen-Town Carnival favors, tuxedos, etc.

Misses Linda DeMetz and Martha Stewart, students from Ole Miss, visited in their homes during the 3-day mid-term holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lozes were in Vicksburg this week to have their son, Buddy, checked at the Polio Center. Buddy's progress in recovery is more than satisfactory.

Mrs. Catherine McDonald, first grade teacher, has returned after being absent of several days.

play space very limited. Cooper-

Miss Jean Atchley transferred from Pass High School to St. Joseph's Academy in Bay St. Louis.

KERN SCHOOL ACCEPTS SIX NEW STUDENTS

Mr. Albert Kern announces that the following students have been added to his school's roster: John Marshall of Pass Christian; Lela Shields and Nancy Shields of Iowa; Norman Dorsey of New Orleans; Cyril Kelly of Jackson, Miss.; and Jackie Breckenridge of New Orleans. The lovely summer camp known as Kern's Camp on Jordan river is now accepting applications for summer. The camping session will begin June 16 and lasts for eight consecutive weeks. Pamphlets giving particulars about the camp will be ready for mailing within two weeks and those interested in obtaining a pamphlet may do so by addressing a request to Mr. Kern.

In observance of the Mardi Gras season Kern school will give holidays on Monday and Tuesday and resume classes on Wednesday, February 18.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

Due to rainfall and an excessive amount of traffic the campus grounds to the rear of the public school building stood continuously with water. Mud was tracked into the buildings and play space was limited. Cooperation with the school in an effort to remedy the situation, Mayor Francis Hursey agreed to furnish a scraping machine and clay-pebble fill will be used as a filler on the grounds.

The Biggest problem facing the school at present is crowded conditions in the school's cafeteria and kitchen. With seating capacity of only 100 students, the cafeteria is hard-put in its attempt to accommodate the student body. Elementary school lunches are served at 11:30 and high school students follow immediately in two shifts. As yet, no practical solution to the problem has been submitted.

CITY COUNCIL DONATES TABLES FOR TEEN TOWN

Mrs. Charles Atchley, promoter and committeewoman in charge of the Teen-Town Canteen, sponsored by Pass Christian's P.-T. A., announced that the City Council had donated funds to purchase 20 card tables to be used at the canteen.

Arrangements have been made to purchase the tables at a wholesale price. Addition of these tables has solved a problem faced by the P.-T. A. since the advent of Teen Town. It was arduous work to carry tables from the school's cafeteria into the gym and back again each week also the committee reported this practice was weakening the legs of school's cafeteria tables.

P.-T. A. PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES GIFTS
Mrs. William R. Allen, president of the Pass Christian P.-T. A., released today the association's intentions to supply the High School Library with numerous venetian blinds and to purchase for the elementary school a drinking fountain.

Mrs. Allen explained that exceptionally fine cooperation among P.T.A. members made possible this year's successful organization of the Teen Town Canteen and the gifts to the school.

Donations of $1.00 per person will go into the Alumni's fund for the benefit of the St. Joseph Catholic School and its Sisters.

Many brilliant events arranged for the two competing candidates by their campaign managers brought in an unprecedented sum. Dr. Taylor's vote amounted to $2,943.29 while the votes for Dr. J. W. Burk totaled $2,855.30. Miss Patsy Hayden, an Alumni worker says: "In round figures we have $5,500.00 for the fund. We hope the proceeds from the ball will bring the amount up to $6,000.00."

All Right...Let Us Judge CATHOLICS BY THE BIBLE!

Many sincere people regard the Bible as the sole authority for Christian belief.

And they reject the teachings of the age-old Catholic Church because these teachings and forms of Catholic worship are not mentioned by name in Holy Scripture.

"Where," some will ask, "does the Bible say anything about the Mass or purgatory? And how about confession to a priest, praying to Mary, and those seven sacraments your Catholics talk about? They're not in MY Bible."

Although everything contained in the Bible is true, yet the Bible is not the sole source of all truth. For example, we know that Christ established His Church... that the Church existed long before the Bible was completed... that millions lived and died in the Savior's truth without ever having seen a Bible.

But we are willing to set aside these historical truths for the moment and judge Catholic beliefs and practices by the Bible.

Take first, for instance, the fact that the Bible does not mention the Mass or purgatory by name. Well, neither does it mention the word "Bible" by name. Furthermore, nowhere within its covers is it stated what are the writings which contain the inspired Word of God. The only authority you have for this is the word of the Catholic Church, which preserved and collected the Scriptural writings and put them between the covers of a book.

The word "Sacrament," meaning a sacred rite, is not used anywhere in the Bible. But Holy Scripture does make clear the sacredness of such Catholic rites as Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Matrimony, Penance, the Last Anointing, and Holy Orders, the latter rite being the deputizing of the successors to the Apostles.

The sacraments were in possession of the Church and in daily use before a single line of the new Testament was written. People were being received into the Church by Baptism long before there was a New Testament. They were receiving Confirmation, were being married according to Christ's teaching, and praying over and anointing the dangerously sick.

Christ definitely did establish His Church, He did deputize His Apostles, and their successors, to continue His teaching. He did promise that His Church would endure forever, and could not fall into error. But He never did say, "All my teachings shall be in a book. Read and believe nothing else."

A tremendously interesting pamphlet explaining the Catholic teaching concerning such things as the Sacraments, purgatory, why Catholics do not eat meat on Friday, why we call it Catholic Church, instead of "Roman" Catholic. For your free copy write today... ask for Pamphlet No. KC-28.

HOME AGENT NOTES

by: Miss Sarah Weaver, Home Agent

The annual Farm and Home week at Mississippi State College will be held July 14, 15 and 16. The annual meeting of the Mississippi Home Demonstration Council will be held on the same dates at State College.

Plans are for a Farm and Home Week Program of widely expanded activities compared to the last 10,000 people on the campus and taking part in the varied program offered has been set. Facilities are being arranged to accommodate such a crowd.

A continuous program of exhibits, with Miss Hospitality of Mississippi as hostess, demonstrations, tour speakers, machinery in action, livestock judging, and many other features will be presented. Many of the events will take place simultaneously to allow the visitors a choice of activities to fit their greatest interest.

July seems a long way off now. But as the plans are completed and you hear more about them, the folks at State College hope you and your neighbors will be so interested you will just have to come up to visit them.

Christ definitely did establish His Church, He did deputize His Apostles, and their successors, to continue His teaching. He did promise that His Church would endure forever, and could not fall into error. But He never did say, "All my teachings shall be in a book. Read and believe nothing else."

liquid where the bed has been opened 6 inches deep or by placing capsules 6 inches deep and 12 inches apart in the row.

Your home agent or county agent can tell you more about the treatment and the kind of fumigant to use.

The temperature of the soil should be above 50 degrees Fahrenheit when it is treated, and it is better if it is between 70 to 85 degrees.

It will cost from $2.50 to $3.00 to treat a home garden one-tenth of an acre in size.

Add up the cost of tomato plants, seed, work and loss of anticipated carrots, beets, squash and other vegetables. The $3.00 you spend can save you a lot, can't it?

Broiling grapefruit gives it a surprisingly mellow flavor. And it is easy to prepare, too.

Just sprinkle a half grapefruit with sugar and a dash of spice as cinnamon, orange or nutmeg. Then cut with bits of butter and broil 10 to 15 minutes with direct heat. Put the grapefruit on a broiler rack set 3 to 4 inches from heat.

When the grapefruit is slightly browned and heated through, it is ready to serve. Remove from the broiler and pour 1 tablespoon honey or grape juice over each half.

Honey is good with grapefruit. Cut out the white center of the grapefruit and fill the hole with strained honey. Set the sweetened fruit in the refrigerator for a few hours or overnight so the honey can penetrate all parts of the fruit.

Grapefruit, like other citrus fruits, is a source of vitamin C. And as in other fruits, it offers the most vitamin C when the pulp, as well as the juice is eaten.

County Agent's Notes

By HOWARD SIMMONS

FOULTRY
"Cheap Chickens Don't Cheep Long." Those that you buy at low prices are likely to be diseased. They may be in a weakened condition due to long shipment. They may be just generally of poor quality.

Do not take a chance of getting diseased chicks. Buy your chicks from a Mississippi hatchery. All Mississippi hatchery chicks are either U. S. Pullorum Passed or Clean.

CORN
Every acre of corn that you plant can be made to produce as much as 50 bushels to the acre provided you follow the recommendations and get sufficient rain.

Select land that does not dry too much. Don't put your best cotton land in corn, but do plant your next best land to corn.

Fertilizer recommendations, out of the Delta, are 30 pounds each of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash per acre. This can be obtained from any good mixed fertilizer.

When knee-high, the corn should be side-dressed with 60 to 80 pounds of nitrogen per acre.

Select a recommended variety. Check with your county agent to find out the best varieties for your area.

Don't put off preparing corn land until all other crops are planted. Prepare land and plant corn at the proper time. Usually early planted corn does better than late planted corn.

A good spacing to use is 15 to 16 inches apart on 10-inch rows. Usually this required 10 to 14 pounds of seed corn per acre. A good rule of thumb is to buy a peck of seed corn for every acre that you plant.

Cultivate to keep down weeds and grass. Just as soon as the corn shades the ground enough to control grass and weeds, stop cultivation.

Hotbeds. Plant hotbeds eight to ten weeks before plants are to go into the home garden. They should stay in the hotbed four to five weeks and in a coldframe another four to five weeks.

Do not over-water the hotbed. However, do keep the plants in good growing condition.

If plants in hotbed grow too fast, hold water to a minimum and give more ventilation during the sunny part of the day.

Planting. Make two to three plantings of most spring vegetables to help insure a continuous supply. Use fresh seed every time. If you have left over seed, test them before using.

When setting cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, tomato, eggplant, and pepper plants, pour one cupful of starter solution around each plant. Make your starter solution by dissolving one pound of 5-10-5 fertilizer in five gallons of water. Keep stirred while using.

Fertilizer. Place four to seven pounds of 5-10-5 or similar analysis fertilizer per 100 feet of row. Make application 10 days before planting. When plants are two to three inches tall, side-dress with one to three pounds of nitrate of soda, or a proportionate amount of other nitrogen fertilizer.

Congressman Wm. M. Colmer

THE STATE OF THE UNION

Last week Dwight D. Eisenhower made his initial bow before a joint session of the Congress assembled in his "State of the Union" speech. This is all in line with the Constitution of the United States which provides that the President shall make such a statement to the Congress, the representatives of the people, at the beginning of each session of the Congress. Up until the tenure of Franklin D. Roosevelt it was customary for the President to send his speech down to the two Houses of the Congress where it was read by the respective Clerks of the House and Senate. But, Mr. Roosevelt introduced the invocation of delivering the message in person. This was followed by President Truman and apparently is to be followed by President Eisenhower.

SIGNIFICANCE
The President's address, taking nearly an hour for delivery, covered the whole field of Government. Much of it consisted of generalities. But there were two strong and significant topics. First, he insisted that the Government's house be placed in order. He properly referred to impending bankruptcy and insisted on a balanced budget. He placed this above the desired goal of reduction of taxes, which he intimated could come later.

FOREIGN POLICY
But perhaps the boldest stroke and the most emphatic proposal was for a "positive" foreign policy and an abandonment of the appeasement policy. He advocated and subsequently ordered the withdrawal of the American fleet from the "protection" of the Chinese Mainland; the Chinese Nationalists to invade or otherwise harass the Chinese Communists. This step within itself is not too important. The important thing is that this is but the beginning of a positive policy. It no doubt will lead among other things to the use of "Chinese Nationalist soldiers to replace American boys in Korea. This positive policy could well mean the bombing of bases in the Communist "sanctuary" of Manchuria. It could mean a termination of the stalemate in Korea by bringing the war home to China.

As one who has long advocated a positive policy in dealing with the masters of the Kremlin, we naturally applaud this change of policy by the new Administration. We repeat, we do not think Russia wants either war or peace, but hopes to "destroy America" by bleeding us white. A change of policy is therefore long over-due.

DANGER!

Relating to Television Antennae

The main purpose of this advertisement is to try to save a life—perhaps yours—by calling attention to possible hazards incidental to the erection of TV antennae.

If your antenna is to be mounted on a roof, have someone erect it who is accustomed to working on roofs or higher. Do not install the antenna too close to electric wires, even if they are only service wires to the house. You may come in contact with them during erection, or your antenna may be blown into them during a storm. This could be dangerous.

If your antenna is on a tall pipe or tube mounting, you should give careful attention to the guy wires, as well as the supporting fastenings. Be sure they are strong enough and securely fastened. They should be of rust-resisting material, and you should check their condition every two or three years. It is especially necessary that you keep such antenna mountings well in the clear of electric wiring because they are limber, top-heavy, hard to handle, and because they fall easy prey to strong winds.

If you have to go "really up in the air" for your TV signals, then your antenna may be mounted on a pole or mast. If you use a pole, be sure it is a substantial, treated wood pole set sufficiently deep so that it will not fall. You may have to guy a metal mast. Be sure the guys and fastenings are adequate and that they are of rust-resisting metal. In some cases you will need more than one set of guys. Don't take chances with adjacent electric wires during erection.

People have been killed in Mississippi due to antennae falling across live electric wires. Other persons have been killed trying to get the first victims away from the live wires. If you are about to erect an antenna or have one erected—please require these three things:

Adequate initial strength
Safe clearance from electric wires
Ample strong, rust-resisting guys and fastenings

DON'T TOUCH

One more very important caution: If perchance an antenna gets into any live electric wires during erection or later—or if you have to deal with live electric wires which have fallen or burned down—do not attempt to touch or move such live wires or anything in contact with them. Keep people away from them and notify the nearest Power Company office, or the Police or the Fire Department.

Observing these simple precautions may save a life—perhaps your own.

More Important Every Day...

Beef cattle are becoming more important every day to the growing prosperity of rural Mississippi... and so are telephones.

The State's cattle industry has grown to three times its 1946 value to more than 215 million dollars today... During the same 7 years, Southern Bell has increased the number of rural telephones in Mississippi to more than 36,000—over four times as many as were in service on January 1, 1946.

That 7 years program of rural telephone expansion and improvement—the greatest in Southern Bell's 72 years in Mississippi—has already cost approximately 12 million dollars.

In continuing this vast expansion program, we have more than 100 new projects underway which will enable us to serve approximately 5000 new customers in rural Mississippi during 1953.
